

Questions to ask your divorce expert before hiring

Hello Divorce experts are hand-picked by us and trained to be empathetic, efficient, and effective. Brief calls or video chats can help you compare styles, get a feel for their approach, and find the right fit for your needs.

Their background

- ☐ How long have you been practicing?
- ☐ What made you choose this line of work?
- ☐ Who can you help?

Their process

- ☐ What are the biggest challenges most of your clients face?
- ☐ What should I expect from our first meeting? What does the rest of the process look like?
- ☐ How many sessions with you do you think my issue will require?

Their personality

- ☐ How do you think your clients would describe you?
- ☐ Describe your ideal client.
- ☐ How do you know if a client is a good fit?
- ☐ What do you think the most important thing for me to do during this process?

It's totally okay to follow up with a few questions after your first conversation. We all forget things in the moment—just be respectful of the expert's time while making sure your key concerns are addressed.
